Dear Harold:

The Ukrainian Free University, Munich, about which you asked, is under the presidency of Professor Ivan Mirchuk. It has departments of philosophy, philology, law, and social and political science. Although formerly subsidized wholly by the CPUN (Central Representation of Ukrainians in Germany), which is a non-political organization of Ukrainian refugees in Germany, it has recently been recognized by the German and local Bavarian governments and now receives state aid.

As far as I can ascertain, the University has a sound academic reputation and has a number of distinguished emigre scholars on its faculty.

Sincerely,

Dear Harold:

The Ukrainian Free University, about which you asked, is under the presidency of Professor Ivan Mirchuk. It has departments of philosophy, philology, law, and social and political science. Although formerly subsidized wholly by the CPUN (Central Representation of Ukrainians in Germany), which is a non-political organization of Ukrainian refugees in Germany, it has recently been recognized by the German and local Bavarian governments and now receives state aid.

As far as I can ascertain,
~~Since~~ the University has a sound academic reputation and has a number of distinguished emigre scholars on its faculty, ~~I should think there would be no reason why you should not accept the degree which the University wishes to confer upon you.~~

Sincerely,

Dear Harold:

Before you left for South America, you mentioned that you would be interested in a briefing on the Moslem world. We will be ready to give that briefing to you at any time at your convenience and would naturally be glad to have you bring with you any members of your staff you may desire who are cleared for Top Secret information.

Sincerely,

Dear Allen:

Just a note to thank you for the delightful dinner honoring John Hughes which you had at the Alibi Club on June 9th. It was a grand get-together and I thoroughly enjoyed the evening.

Sincerely,

Honorable Allen W. Dulles

Dear Harold:

I enclose a memorandum on [] which was handed me by an American whom I can identify to you if you are interested.
He tells me that this memorandum was prepared by what corresponds to the Secretary of Commerce [] and received [] personal approval. The man who handed this to me is reputable and competent, and I accept his views as to the origin of the memorandum. It is, however, merely another try on the part of [] to get what economic and financial aid they can get from us, and I send it to you merely to add to your already growing file on this subject.

Faithfully yours,

Allen W. Dulles
